

CHICAGO FIELD STUDIES (CFS)

CFS 495-0 Civic Engagement and Graduate Education (1-3 Units)

This seminar examines topics including theories of citizenship, the scope of civic action and public work, the nature of public scholarship, and the role of public intellectuals in civic life. Students will undertake an internship or field study in a community organization, educational setting, or non-profit. Summer version focuses on public humanities. Application and acceptance to Graduate Engagement Program (GEO) through the Center for Civic Engagement required.